Stanton Chase continues expansion with new Washington, D.C. office

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Global executive search firm Stanton Chase announced today the opening of a new office in Washington, D.C., providing more opportunities to serve clients more effectively throughout the mid-Atlantic region.

Jeff Perkins, a veteran executive search professional, has been appointed Managing Director of the new Stanton Chase D.C. office. With Jeff at the helm, he will bring vast experience in leadership consulting and executive development as CEO of Huntbridge. Huntbridge, Inc. is an innovative leadership consulting firm that provides hand-crafted solutions for talent leaders. Jeff will work closely with Stanton Chase Managing Director Lyn Cason in the neighboring Baltimore office.

International Chairman Mickey Matthews remarked, “We’re delighted to expand our reach into this important market in the capital of the United States, and we’re glad to bring Jeff and his deep client relationships into the fold of Stanton Chase where we can serve their senior executive search requirements.”

Lyn Cason, Managing Director and Co-Chair of the Diversity practice and Global Sector Leader for Advertising, Media and Publishing, added: “We’re thrilled to be bringing Jeff on board. We’ve been watching his clients grow and diversify in the last few years in the D.C. area, and we’re glad to be working together on our media, nonprofit, life sciences, and education practices.”
